

Steve Curtiss

Steve Curtiss graduated with honors from Stanford University in a special program in Design that included classes from Nathan Oliveira and Matt Kahn. He subsequently studied for ten years under noted local painter Alfredo D'Annunzio and exhibited in galleries in the Bay Area and in Mendocino County.

In 2010 he won Artist of the Year for Senate District 11 (Silicon Valley) and had his work displayed in the State Capitol. Steve shows in Gallery 9 in Los Altos and has taught painting at the Pacific Art League since 1996.